With Frank Halliday

www.norfolkskies.co.uk

Frank is a typical Yorkshire man with a wicked sense of humour and has lived in many parts of England before settling in Norfolk. Rejecting the chance to attend Art College, Frank elected to pursue a successful business career, but he has never lost his love and enthusiasm for painting. With exhibitions in Yorkshire, Derbyshire and Norfolk, Frank has also demonstrated works in Watercolour, Oils, and Acrylics. Collectors throughout the world value his paintings. Three of his pictures entitled "Norfolk Skies", have been published as limited edition prints, these along with original paintings can be viewed or purchased at Frank's home address. Frank paints for sheer enjoyment– with a loose, bold, big brush style. He loves to be free and unstructured, but, even though he bends the rules, he is a subtle teacher and an innovative Master; His classes are fun and, with his expert eye, guide students of all abilities to achieve memorable results. Frank is engaged as a professional demonstrator for Winsor & Newton and has written several instructional books on watercolours for two international publishers printed in many languages. He has worked on commercial TV and local radio. Six of his painting videos are also available
